DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On April 21, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner asserts that she did not incur any out-of-pocket expenses in pursuit of her petition. Petitioner submitted her request for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain items in petitioner's application but found the total amount of fees and costs requested to be reasonable. Petitioner now requests reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $11,916.56. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $11,916.56, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check made payable jointly to petitioner and Nemes, Rooney & McKindles P.C. in the amount of $11,916.56.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
